Directions to Property: Hwy 50 to Silva Valley north to rt on Serrano Parkway to rt on Villagio Dr to right onto Borgata Way to left on Arenzano Way, property is on the right.

Public Remarks: Behind the gates of Serrano, just moments from Bella Terra Park, 4296 Arenzano feels like the kind of home people naturally gather in. Sunlight pours through soaring onto hand-scraped Brazilian hardwood floors, white plantation shutters and warm finishes give the home a sense of comfort that feels established from the moment you walk in. The main living spaces were designed to stay connected without feeling crowded. Conversations carry easily from the family room, into the kitchen, where the large island, generous counter space, and breakfast nook looking out on the courtyard make everyday mornings feel just as inviting as holidays spent with a full house. Open the doors to the courtyard for coffee in the early light, or spend evenings outside by the pool and spa with dinner under the covered patio. The backyard feels private, relaxed, and yours in the best way a space made for long summer evenings and quiet nights at home alike. Upstairs, the owner's suite feels removed from the pace of the rest of the house, with a sitting area and private balcony that create a quiet place to end the day. Downstairs, a separate office with its own entry offers the kind of flexibility that's increasingly hard to find, whether used for guests, work, or space to grow into over time. Set within one of Serrano's most established gated neighborhoods, the home balances warmth, privacy, and everyday functionality in a way that feels both refined and easy to live in.
